WaterVoyagers Exclusive World Premiere on Travel Escapes!

Chongqing, China— Get ready to embark on a breathtaking voyage as WaterVoyagers: Chinese Adventures makes its highly anticipated world premiere on Saturday, May 10th, and again on Sunday, May 11th, at 9:30pm ET streaming worldwide on Travel Escapes.

Travel Escapes is currently on Plex, LocalNow, TCL TV+, VIDAA, FreeCast, TCL Channels. New episodes will air every weekend repeating at 1am, 4:30am, 8am, 11:30am ET.

This immersive travel series follows two American hosts, Tinabeth Pina and Frances Kuo, as they set sail on two Century Cruise ships along the legendary Yangtze River. In our debut episode we begin in Chongqing, a vibrant city of 32 million people, exploring what to see and do before and after embarking on a breathtaking Three Gorges River Cruise. You'll discover why this journey is truly one of a kind, meet the visionary founder of Century Cruises, and even get up close with Chongqing's most adorable and furry ambassadors—the giant pandas.

"We're thrilled to bring audiences an unforgettable journey that blends exploration, culture, and relaxation," said Tom Jacobs, Managing Director, WaterVoyagers Media LLC. "Each of the five episodes captures the beauty of the Yangtze and the excitement of luxury travel on Century Cruises, making it a must-watch for travelers and adventure seekers alike."

"When Tom approached us with the idea of a docu-series, we were both honored and excited," said David Fredericks, Senior Vice President of Sales & Marketing at Century Cruises.

"WaterVoyagers offers us a unique platform to share our story — a legacy of over 30 years delivering unforgettable journeys that blend exploration, culture, and true leisure. Partnering with WaterVoyagers allows us to showcase the beauty and richness of China to audiences around the world."
